

The Best Kind of People
Zoe Whittall

978-0-399-18221-1
HC | $28.00

A timely novel about an accusation against a beloved schoolteacher and the repercussions on his loved ones, exploring issues of loyalty, truth, and the meaning of happiness through the lens of an all-American family on the brink of collapse.

Bridget says: One of my top picks for the fall—breathhtakingly insightful and powerful read about many things, but at its core, the ultimate unknowability of even those we love the most.

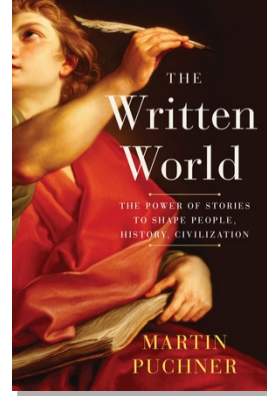

American Wolf
Nate Blakeslee

978-1-101-90278-3
HC | $28.00 | On Sale 10-17-2017

The intimate, involving story of the rise and reign of O-Six, the fabled Yellowstone wolf, and the people who loved or feared her.

Bridget says: A penetrating, bountifully researched, expertly told story of the fallout, both intended and not, of the successful re-introduction of wolves into Yellowstone. Look for it to turn up on many of the Best Of lists in December.

The Written World
Martin Puchner

978-0-8129-9893-1
HC | $32.00 | On Sale 10-24-2017

On this remarkable journey, the power of literature to shape people, civilizations and world history is explored through 16 key stories from over 4,000 years of literature—from The Iliad's influence on Alexander the Great, through to J.K. Rowling today.

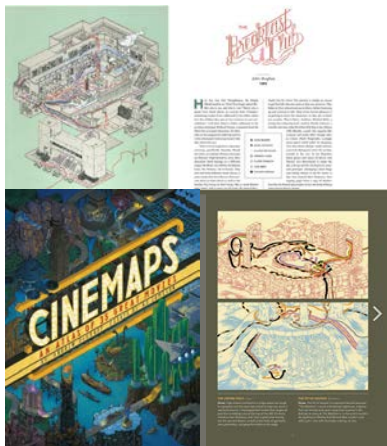

Bridget says: This could easily be the must-own book for serious readers this fall. It is sweeping and detailed at once. Think The Swerve meets The Discoverers. But with pictures!

The Atlas of Beauty
Mihaela Noroc

978-0-399-57995-0
HC | $30.00 Based on the hugely popular website, and finally brought together in book format, this collection features 350 photographs of women from more than 50 countries, with captions that reveal each woman's unique story and environment.

Bridget says: Books about women—strong, radical, scientific, and here, beautiful, have been crowding the front tables for good reason—they are white hot. This one combines the best of photography, travel, and human interest in one essential package.

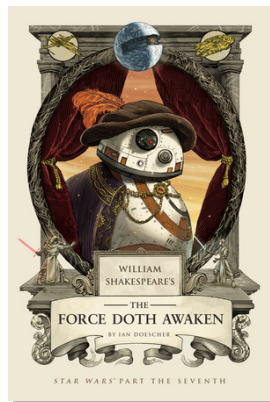

Cinemaps
